Dedication

To Masae, Kalista and Cainan, the greatest family a man could ever want for; To the accused citizens that I have had the privilege to represent over the years; To those who have had the courage to look at the jury and say, “not guilty” as I announce, “ready for trial!”

And to the many mentors, employees and friends that have stood by me through the tough years, and to Hallye Casey who worked so hard to help bring this book to print and most of all to my Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ, without whom this edition would not be possible.
